What are Dubai Porta Potties?

For those yet unplugged, or recently unplugged, the tale of Dubai Porta Potties may be a disturbing read. But it is necessary to illuminate just how far Western women, and by extension – Western society – has fallen.

The website, Tag The Sponsor, reveals the hidden secret behind the new generation of Instagram models who, for frivolous short-term material gain, are willing to ruin the rest of their lives.

These “models” get their designer clothes, exuberant shopping sprees, flashy cars and money in the bank. They get to put “London/Dubai” in their Instagram profile and have their pictures taken in stunning locales. All they have to do is get defecated on by groups of Arab men.

For thousands of dollars, these women are flown out to the Gulf, party, shop and then get fucked in the most humiliating fashion by their sponsors – wealthy groups of Arab Princes, Royalty and businessmen.

These acts may include coprophilia, urolagnia, bestiality and pedophilia. No reports of necrophilia yet, but I’m sure that will come in time.

As one former woman describes it:

These guys are so rich, hate their wives and bored with life they are willing to pay anything for their crazy sex fetishes and I was crazy enough to expect the money. I've had to be gangbang and bukkaked by over 20 Saudi royalty at once (made 40K) in two days so it was worth it.

*I've literally been pissed on and sh*tted on so many times I just don't understand why they like it (after the 3rd time you get sh*t on you get use to* it). I've had to have sex with a male German Shepard dog in front of them,

*I've had to stick numerous objects in my ass and their ass*s as well,*

*I've got paid to eat sh*t, I've got paid to get beat up,*

I even had to stick a live Salmon in some 65 year olds man ass...

*I've had sex with their 14 year old boys to make them men, I've drank cups of c*m and have smeared my face with their sh*t. So to all you ladies that are going to bash me.*

I'm 24 years old and have 1 million dollars liquid in my bank account. I'm now retired and can have normal sex with whomever I want.

The depressing thing is that she believes she can now return to a normal life, with normal sex.

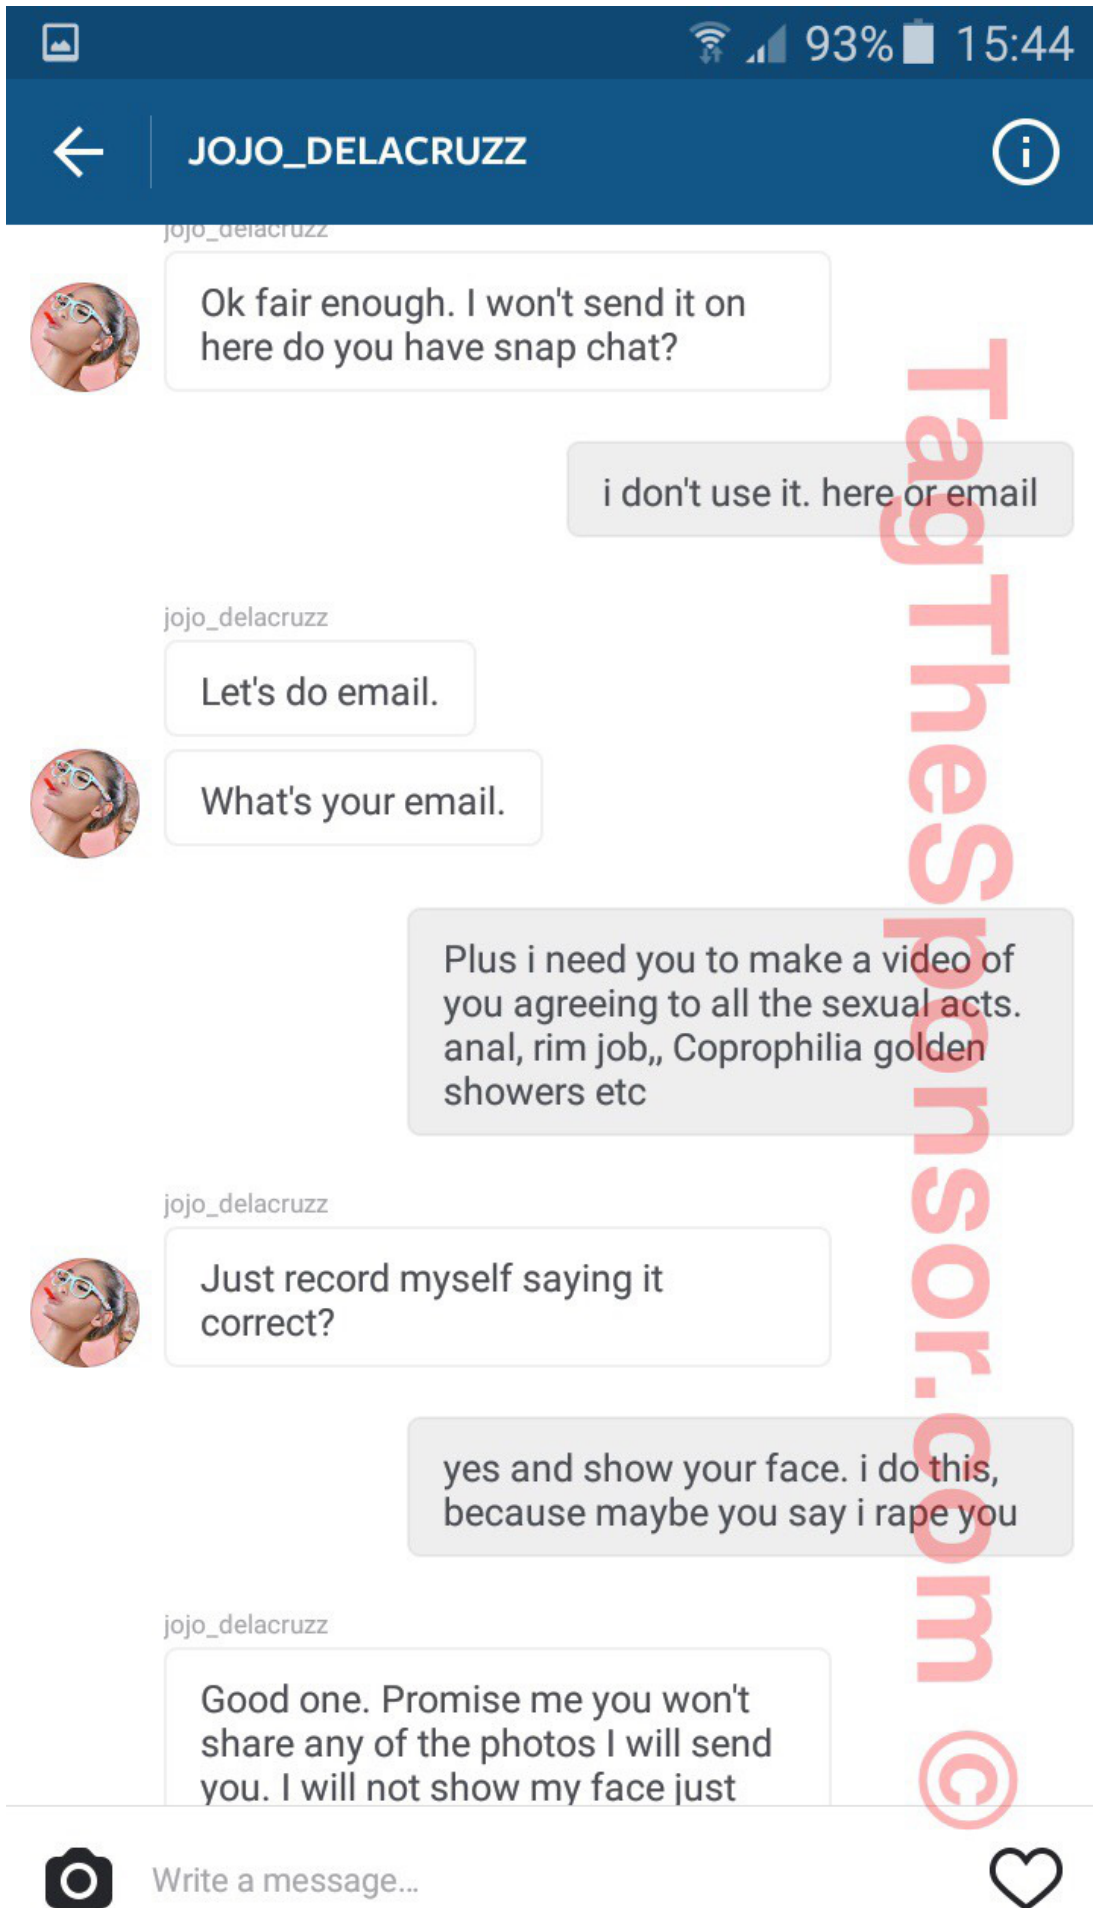

I'm going to go out on a limb and say that after you've had groups of men squirt diarrhea on your face, having normal sex might be a more complicated affair.

Perhaps her parent(s) should have explained to her that having sex with children, dogs, fish and frozen poopsicles for money will lead to long-term mental disorders.

It's completely lost on her that a high-value, desirable man with even an ounce of self respect will not touch her with a ten foot pole wrapped in a condom. Her future will consist of ploughing through a line of Instragram orbiters, ready to feast them themselves on (literal) sloppy seconds.

Can you imagine getting into bed with this woman, holding her in your arms? Having her tuck in your children and kiss them goodnight? The kids would probably get pink eye.

One million dollars isn't even a large amount of money. Certainly not enough to lose your humanity over. Not enough to become a husk of what was once a human being, so you can have a few years of a lavish lifestyle.

Of course the blame for this lies firmly at the feet of feminism.

As Donovan Sharpe points out, this would be unlikely to happen even 15-20 years ago.

But “slut-shaming” or – society’s way of informing women what type of behaviour is beneficial for said society – has been continuously undermined for decades.

We have now reached the point where after years of feminists making excuses for degenerate behaviour, all in the name of empowering women, they are free to be used as human toilets for money. Real progress.

Again, with all manifestations of Leftism, society is the loser.

The ever smaller group of traditional, masculine men will find it harder and harder to settle down and raise a strong family as more and more women engage in more and more depraved behaviour.

The feminised, pedestal-prostrating masses will shack up with these sluts, have a few kids, then get divorced raped.

A new generation of children raised by single mothers who spent their formative years being shat upon, without the guiding hand of strong father, will grow up as either weak men or strumpets in their own right.

The circle of life.

And what of these Arab men? Do you they treat their Muslim women the same way they treat Western women? Does this insight into their depraved culture have anything to do with the wave of mass rape sweeping over Europe? Or of the rape gangs in England who only targeted white women and girls? Questions to ponder for another day.

The key thing to get out of this, other than the contents of your stomach, is that just because a woman is beautiful does not mean she is desirable. A woman should never be given respect or deference just because she won the genetic lottery.

There are good women out there, you'll just have to look a lot harder to find them.
